LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Real estate is quiet.
Cereals planted with quick dispatch.
Cool, pleasant weather for the last few days.

Mr. Nagle has taken up his residence in the Mission.
Mr. Madewell, by last accounts, was still in Ottawa.

Col. Spent has completed the survey of the town of Rubeck.
Mr. Schreger, chief factor, H. B. Co., Cumberland, arrived in town last Sunday.

J. I. Johnson & Co., have received the latest stock of hardware ever brought into Prince Albert.

As will be seen by advertisement in another column, the McKenzie estate is to be sold by auction on August 2nd.

During the rain storm on Monday, a friend of ours was killed, in a very unpleasant manner, this is a sad fact.

The steamer Manitoba broke her wheel at the Cole Falls Rapids on her way up here, which will delay her for a few days.

We learn that a photographer has arrived in town, and believe everybody and their gals are to have their pictures taken.

The first surveying party of the season from the east, numbering some fifteen men, arrived at Patoche's Station last Saturday.

By reference to our advertisement column, will be seen a notice to persons having claims against the estate of the late William Oliver of Prince Albert.

A. D. & Co. received this week a large consignment of crockery, etc., it should be first-class as it has been made in the country for the last two years.

The fluency of the weather Sunday afternoon entered into the majority of the inhabitants of the town for an airing, and the people were in splendid condition for a good spin.

Bill Heads neatly and promptly printed at this office.

Mr. Brown, lately of Colville Landing, has arrived here, and is opening out a general store in the east end of Jackson's building, in the Mission. We wish him all success.

Latest accounts from Stewart's drive indicate that the water has fallen about five feet, and the present prospects are that the logs will not reach here till about the middle of June.

An auction sale of grain, farm implements, etc., of the late Wm. Oliver, will take place at his late residence on Saturday, the 2nd of June, at the hour of 12 o'clock, noon. See advt.

We learn that another young hopeful has been added to the army of the North West, a young man looking for a position in the east end having become the happy father of a bouncing boy.

The putting up of the machinery in Mackintosh's mill is being pushed through rapidly, and is expected that by the time the logs arrive everything will be in running order.

The furniture and general outfit for Kingston, which was lost over at Cumberland last fall, arrived by the steamer Northcote. As the building is completed, they will expect the club to be in running order shortly.

All kinds of Job Printing promptly executed.

Last Thursday as the driver of one of Capt. Hewer's teams was on his way here, he stopped at Stanley's crossing to feed the team, when all at once the horse, which was being ridden at a gallop, was killed.

T. N. Campbell, stationer, received two magnificent Mason & Bach pianos from Toronto by steamer. The pianos, Northcote from Cumberland, where they had been stored since last fall, and were in excellent condition.

During the storm last week the electric element had quite a lively time in the chimney of this McKay, Esq. The lightning entered the building by the chimney, entirely demolishing it, and following the stove pipes down through the building, scattering things around promiscuously, when it disappeared through the ground floor into the cellar. Fortunately none of the inmates were injured.

Had there been any one on Monday that Troy, from which point all goods by the C. P. R. are freighted to Prince Albert, had been completely burnt down, with the exception of one ware house. This is bad news for the town, as nearly all the merchants had more or less goods in store there awaiting the arrival of freights. We were unable to learn any of the particulars.

Business Cards printed on the shortest notice.

THE NOMINATIONS.

The nomination of candidates to represent the Electoral District of Lorne in the North West Council took place here yesterday at the office of Col. Sprout, Returning Officer. At the hour appointed, 11 a.m., there was a large gathering congregated in and around the building. The affair passed over in a quiet and orderly manner, there being no excitement whatever. Two candidates were nominated: D. H. Macdowell, Esq., and Dr. A. E. Porter. Mr. Macdowell was nominated by Messrs J. Finlayson, T. Taylor, Hon. Laurence Clarke, J. S. Sinclair, J. E. Betts, G. T. Brown, T. Mackay, P. Turner, W. Miller, H. S. More, W. V. MacIn, J. E. Anderson, H. Erasmus, W. Bartlett, Hugh A. Bain, J. Macdonald, M. McGee, W. R. Gunn, J. A. Marshall and A. Stewart. Dr. Porter's nomination was by E. J. Pritchard, A. L. Ashdown, J. Combs, J. H. Hurd, T. G. Jackson, T. Hapner, F. O. Davis, E. Ross, T. N. Campbell and Thomas E. Jackson. Those Mackays, Esq., will be the election clerk. The poll clerks are T. N. Campbell for this town, Capt. Young, Hurd's settlement, A. McNeill, North Bessie; H. McKenna, the ridge; Louis Schmidt, St. Laurent, W. Beaupre, Duck Lake. The enumeration was M. McKenna, A. W. R. Marley, Bernard Brewster, Louis Schmidt, W. Beaupre. The election will take place on Tuesday, the 31st day of June next.

HOUSES AND WHIRLWINDS.

218. Having viewed the wreck of Mr. John Macdonald's house, I think there is nothing to be surprised at that the roof did blow off. Putting a shingle roof upon a log building, without connecting the logs together, is like putting a hat on, it's liable to blow off at any moment. I do not mean to disparage the builder's work, as it was done according to contract. I think a building of that description should have at the least six rounds at the top placed together, so the weight of the roof will not keep it in place, as is the case with the mud and shingle. There are other buildings in and around Prince Albert that will not stand any more whirlwind than did Mr. Macdonald's. I am referring only to building without keels and plaster inside or weather boarding outside.

A YEOMAN.

T. J. Agnew is leaving his store at the hill tomorrow down to the mission.

High J. Montgomery, real estate agent, disposed of over $2,000 worth of property during the past week.

Rev. Mr. Matheson left for Troy this morning. He was accompanied by a son of Bishop McLean. They will meet and return with his lordship, who is on his way home.

Having received our supply of paper, stationery, etc., which was unavoidably left at Cumberland last fall, we intend issuing next week our usual six pages.

We are pleased to be in a position to make this announcement, as it relieves us of a great amount of worry and annoyance in being cramped for space in our press columns. We will feel grateful to parties who will kindly forward us any information or items of interest concerning Prince Albert and the surrounding country. They will receive the closest attention.

Births, Marriages and Deaths, 50 Cents.

DEATHS.
